

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sylvester John Krell and Blanche Luella Frost exchanged their wedding vows on December 18, 1945, at Ft. Pierre, South Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Sylvester and Blanche have shared their love with their three children: David, Judith, and Barbara, who in turn blessed them with three grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Sylvester was employed at Rozum Motor Ford Dealership as an auto mechanic, and still helps many people repair their cars. Blanche was employed at Rozum Motor Ford Dealership as a bookkeeper/secretary until she became a full-time homemaker; and,

Whereas, Upon retirement, Sylvester and Blanche enjoyed traveling across the United States visiting friends and family, volunteering for their church, and attending Dakota Wesleyan and Mitchell High School basketball games; and,

Whereas, Sylvester and Blanche will celebrate their 65th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as friends and family gather, and it is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

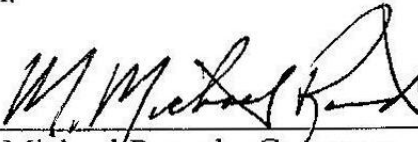

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 18, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
